

At the conclusion of "The Morals of a Prince," Machiavelli offers advice regarding leadership. Considering this advice, write an essay in which you defend, challenge, or qualify the speaker's views regarding the tools a successful leader should employ.

Use evidence from your reading and observation to support your argument.