

Are you ready to mingle? Are you ready to catch a match?

♥ Directions: You are trying to find out more about what the person thinks about the topic AND you are trying to convince the other person that your point of view on the topic is the best point of view. Hopefully, you will be a match!!! We will be changing seats, so just bring a writing utensil and put your bags near the wall. Be ready to talk, listen, and persuade.

♥ Structure:

30 seconds to think about how you'd like to argue. What is your main argument? What is your support? How can you be persuasive?

45 seconds- 1st speaker persuades

45 seconds- 2nd speaker persuades

30 seconds- complete your evaluations

♥ Requirements:

Use as many rhetorical appeals and strategies as possible.

Be polite.

Is Valentine's Day overrated and commercial?

Does love at first sight exist?

Is artificial intelligence taking over our lives?

Should colleges require a second language class?

Should Valentine's Day be celebrated?

What creates a good relationship?

Is social media good or bad?

Should Facebook police misinformation?

What is the best
Valentine's gift?

What is the best
Valentine's day dessert?

Should video gaming be considered a sport?

Should we eliminate the electoral college?

What is the perfect age to get married?

Should couples be forced to pass a relationship test
before they can marry?

Should GMOs be banned?

Should we require self driving cars?

Should chocolate be our national dessert?

Should we join China in celebrating Single's Day?

Should English be the accepted global language?

Should plastic bottles be banned?

Should Valentine's Day be banned from elementary school?

Should teenagers be allowed to date in high school?

Should vegetarianism be mandatory?

Should prescription drugs cost less?

Should both individuals share the bill for dates?

Should shows like the Bachelor be taken off the air?

Should pet
insurance be free?

Should students have to come to school year-round
IF they can come in later
and leave earlier?

Is Smithfield's
Barbeque the best restaurant? (Yes)

Should curse words
be considered acceptable in any situation?

Should college education be free?

Should students be required to take a class that teaches strategies for better mental health?

Should there be age limits for energy drinks?

Should tattoos be allowed at any age?

Should more be done about opiate addictions?

Is love a weakness?

Should community service be required

Should internet data collection be illegal?

Is good grammar necessary anymore?

Should some words
be illegal?

Should HB2 be repealed?♥

Should we trust
any news
agencies?♥

